NARRATIVE DESCRIPTION

Award for Heroic Action or Acceptance of Hazard: Was act voluntary? Describe why act was outstanding, and if it was more than normally expected. Explain, why, and how. If an aerial or marine operation, describe type and position of craft, crew position of individual, and all unusual circumstances. Indicate results of the act. Enclose unclassified citation.

Award for Achievement, Service, or Performance: State character of service during period for which recommended. (Give complete description of administrative, technical, or professional duties and responsibilities if not covered in Section C; include dates of assignment and relief.) What did the individual do that merits the award? Why was this outstanding when compared to others of like grade and experience in similar positions or circumstances? If appropriate, include production records and assistance rendered by other persons or units. What obstacles were encountered or overcome? Indicate results of achievement, service, or performance. Include reference to Fitness Reports, Letters of Commendation, or other documentation already on file which supports this recommendation. Enclose unclassified citation.

In December 1970 [ ] will retire having established an outstanding record of superior performance, selfless dedication, devotion to duty, and loyalty to the Agency for a period of over thirteen years. The sustained, high quality of his performance has been so exceptional as to warrant a recommendation for special recognition.

[ ] has a BS Degree from the University of Maryland and an LLB from the National University Law School. He brought to the Agency extensive experience which he had gained as a contract negotiator with the Department of the Navy and the Veterans Administration. His Agency career has involved him in work as a contract officer, negotiator, and administrator in the Logistics Career Service. In that capacity, he has been responsible for executing and approving contracts involving millions of dollars. The degree of his effectiveness in discharging these responsibilities has been recognized by his superiors through promotions, superior fitness ratings and the awarding of a quality step increase. On the occasion of the latter award, [ ] was described as "an outstanding professional contract negotiator whose services to the Agency have been invaluable."

His legal background and many years experience in complex contracting have given him a professional competence and automatic awareness of problem or sensitive areas. As a result he has been able to bring clarity to complicated and often delicate government-industry relationships. While he has developed a reputation for adaptive fair dealing and equity, he has aggressively participated in negotiations designed to maximize cost reductions in the procurement process and is respected as an arms-length trusted contracting officer by Agency contractors.

25X1 The National Photographic Interpretation Center has been fortunate to have had the services of [ ] during the past eighteen months. STAT
25X1 This has been a particularly crucial period in our Research and Development program because of the need to prepare to meet the requirements of on-coming systems. [ ] has worked directly with the Center's R&D component from the beginning of key projects through to the completion of contractual actions. His efforts have made a substantial contribution to the effectiveness of this important program. In recognition of his outstanding support to NPIC, and the Agency, it is recommended that [ ] be awarded the Certificate of Merit.
